Internet Use of Student Photographs and Full Names

Lakewood Ranch High School and The Lakewood Ranch Band Boosters Association known as (LRBBA) have established an Internet web site to inform the community about the programs and activities at our school and in the band program. Since these sites are published on the Internet, it is freely available to anyone worldwide who has Internet access. Therefore great care must be taken regarding any information about specific students. District web page guidelines prohibit any use of student photographs and full names unless prior permission is granted by the parent. Also prohibited are student home addresses, Phone numbers, email addresses, and full names of any other family members. Teachers may choose to publish exemplary student work on the school Internet site, but only using the first name of the student.

Please check the boxes below if you wish to give permission for the use of student names and/or photographs.

I give permission to publish the full name of the student listed below on the school and LRBBA Internet site.

I give the school system and LRBBA permission to publish photographs of the student listed on the school and LRBBA Internet sites.

Please check the box below if you DO NOT wish to give this approval.

Do not publish the full name or photograph of the student listed below.
